About P4P:

People 4 People is a place to share and discuss solutions and strategies for the daily challenges mainly related to Human Resources (HR).

The community meetups, destined essentially for professionals related to people management, business management, teachers and students, will be held on a bimonthly basis and aims to bring together real people around real issues and interests, promoting debate, the development and definition of solutions and strategies for the Human Resources area.

Mariana Perfeito

UX/UI Designer at Fabamaq and creator of the original P4P logo, is also the designer of my wedding invitations. With a passion for design and a talent for visual communication, Mariana's work on the P4P logo has helped to establish the community's identity and values. (And I really like her work so, hope she likes my adaptation)

Lego designer and Head of Embedded Systems at Fabamaq, accepted the challenge made by Luis Silva to create the Lego representation of the P4P logo. With a passion for lego and a skilled hand, I tried my best, bringing it to life with careful attention to detail and dedication.

Eduardo Sousa

Luis Silva

Head of People, Interaction & Brand at Fabamaq and one of the founders of P4P, is not only a colleague but also a good friend. (hope he like the adaptation). With his extensive experience in people management (and a smile on his face), Luis is a driving force behind the P4P community.
