

Piano Guy

Model instructions by Bird Brick Builds

Author: Eduardo Sousa

259 Parts

This LEGO model of a pianist is more than just a collection of bricks; it's a tribute to 22 years of friendship, laughter, and countless late-night gaming sessions.

Happy 40th Birthday to my good friend, Pina.

We first crossed paths at Gambuzinos (music school), but our real friendship began as "caloiros" (freshmen) at FEUP. Little did we know back then how deeply our lives would intertwine. From music school to standing as each other's right-hand men at both our weddings, it's been quite the journey.

I chose to build this pianist because, let's be honest, you're one hell of a musician. I'll never forget the moment you played as my wife walked down the aisle—a moment that perfectly captured the magic you bring with your music. Designing this model was a new adventure for me, especially the piano, which turned out to be quite the challenge! But just like everything we've tackled together, it was an absolute blast.

Thank you for being there through the tough times, for the smiles during the good times, and for patiently answering every tech question I've thrown your way, whether about computer parts or the latest gadgets. Here's to 22 years of friendship, countless laughs, and many more nights of co-op gaming in our future.

So here's to you, my friend: Thank you for making life a bit more fun, even if your piano is made of LEGO this time around. Let's keep building memories, one brick at a time.

"Thanks for 22 years of friendship and for never once suggesting we should 'grow up,' because where's the fun in that?"
